

Discover your hidden power to make 2007 the year that changed your life... for good.

How to Demolish the Real Obstacles (Once and For All) that are Keeping You From Building Your Own Portable Empire, or Anything Else You Want... in Less than 3 Days.

From: Pat O'Bryan
Tuesday, 2:15 p.m.

Dear Friend,

It's no accident that you're reading this.

For some reason, you were drawn here from whatever it is you were just doing. Something brought you here at this exact moment, to read this very message.

What is that "something?"

I have no idea.

But I don't take signs like this too lightly. I'm suggesting that you don't either.

Here's why:

I am writing to you today to tell you about something that has the impact to absolutely transform your life and your business. And it's happening on February 16, 17 and 18th at the Vintage Villas on Lake Travis in Austin, Texas.

And you're invited.

It's called UnSeminar3.

At UnSeminar2 (September 2006), I spent a lot of time talking about what to do to build your own portable empire - a business that you can run from anywhere, at anytime... to create many streams of income.

And I explained that the difference between success and no success is in what you do, right?

Well, that's true, but it's not the whole story...

You see, I've discovered something very important since UnSeminar2.

What I've discovered is that there is "hidden gold" inside you. And my goal for UnSeminar3 is to show you how to find it.

Because once you do - once you "get it"... everything changes.

I know because, until 3 years ago, my "hidden gold" was nowhere to be found. Or so I thought...

How I Finally Found My Inner Gold

My name is Pat O'Bryan. I'm the Portable Empire guy.

A few years back, my life took a major turn for the better.

The year was 2004. That was that year that I learned some very special secrets that started me on the path that I am living today.

A path of working when I want and how I want...

A path of being able to create something I call a "Portable Empire" - a first class ticket to living life exactly how I want to live it.

For the life of me, I'm not sure why 2004 was the year it finally happened. The year that I finally "got it."

Goodness knows these "secrets" were nowhere to be found during the years I spent struggling as a broke blues musician.

And they still hadn't shown up when my single-wide mobile home got repossessed because I couldn't make the $345 a month payments.

As I look back on those days now, I realize that these same "secrets" were really there all along.

I just couldn't see them.

I was too busy struggling.

The Prison You Can't See...

You see, we're all in a prison. We've built it from the ground up, designed it exactly how we want it, and then stepped inside and locked the door.

That "prison," or "frame" as I call it, is our list of the things we believe are possible and those that we believe are impossible. It's those limits we've put on what we think, feel and believe is possible for ourselves.

It's our own little survival mechanism really. We build it to protect ourselves from being completely overwhelmed by everything that's going on around us. We just filter it out.

That way, we can ignore most of it and get on with our lives.

For 30 years, I lived in that "frame" myself. And let me tell you, the view wasn't so great.

But here's the good news:

Remove the filters... see past the limits (I call it "un-framing") and you can do anything you want. You can be anything you want. And UnSeminar3 will show you how to do just that.

Why UnSeminar3 Is Truly Unlike Anything Else

To plan UnSeminar3, I've gone out of my way to find speakers you just can't find anywhere else - to talk about topics that no one else is talking about... anywhere.

Let me introduce you to a few of them:

Dr. Joe Vitale - star of the movie, "The Secret," best-selling author, TV personality, and marketing wizard. At the first two UnSeminars, Joe spoke about the how-tos of copywriting and the Mindset of Success.

This year, and for the first time ever, he's going to go into the "Secret Beyond The Secret."

He'll show you why the important stuff is really what goes on inside you. And how to use that power to guarantee that you'll make the right decisions - without even knowing why.

Hiring Joe to give you this type of help would cost you thousands and thousands of dollars (if you could get on his schedule). But he is making himself available as part of UnSeminar3... and for that we are most grateful.

You will not want to miss Joe's presentation. It alone will change your life.

Alan Abel - the author of "How to Thrive on Rejection" has the ability to see solutions where most others see problems.

He has a remarkable skill for using publicity and stunts to attract loads of attention to the rich and famous, the poor and downtrodden (and sometimes for dogs and cats).

At UnSeminar3, he'll show you "How to Live By Your Wits."

Nathan Anderson - is the President and founder of the multi-million dollar company, Metawebs, LLC, an in-demand public speaker, teacher and international celebrity. Metawebs is the only company I know of that has cracked the code to consistently win at the SEO game.

He's discovered the reasons (supported by hard data) why two different people, with the same tools and the same education can end up with radically different results in the SEO game. He'll share those secrets with you at UnSeminar3.

Sandra Blaydes - in charge of educating doctors in the cutting edge practices of medical technology, Sandra bravely faces the toughest, most cynical audiences in the country. And she wins their love and respect time after time.

At UnSeminar3, Sandra will show you how to use her simple public-speaking techniques to win over any crowd.

Craig Perrine - one of the most in-demand speakers in the internet marketing world, his marketing techniques have made his clients millions of dollars.

He's the creator of the "Inner Game" concept, which we will be talking about (a lot). At UnSeminar3, he'll explain the whole thing and go much deeper than ever before.

I can't really say exactly what Craig will talk about because he probably won't even know until he stands up to say it. But I guarantee you'll learn something major from his brilliant insights.

Bill Hibbler - is the coauthor, with Dr. Vitale, of "Meet and Grow Rich." The book that is responsible for bringing the mastermind concept into the mainstream. In fact, you can pick it up at your local bookstore right now.

As the genius behind online successes like The Rudl Report and Ecommerce Confidential, Bill will use UnSeminar3 to unveil a brand new program on courage and success (at my personal request).

This is something unlike anyone's ever heard from Bill before. But his talk might just contain the thing you need to hear to make your own Portable Empire a reality.

Bill will also be in charge of the master-mind groups. You'll get a free membership to one when you sign-up. On Saturday and Sunday mornings, we'll start off with master-mind meetings. That's where you'll get a chance to share your ideas, get feedback and learn from all of the other members of your group.

Pat O'Bryan - Author, speaker, teacher, and webpreneur. I went from broke blues guitar player to a six-figure income in less than two years. By year three... into the top 3% in the nation.

I did it with the Portable Empire System.

And I will show you how you can do it too.

One of the most important things I did was change my thoughts, beliefs and actions through a program I call "Un-Framing." I told you about it just a few moments ago. Well, it works.

For the very first time, I'm taking the entire audience through a complete "Un-Framing" program. I'm going to help you dissolve your current "filters," break through your limitations and enable you to see your true, full potential.

And I'm going to do all that in just 90 minutes.

By the way - I'm also going to unveil a new online community at UnSeminar3 that's going to change the way you do business - forever.

By reserving your seat now, you'll be the first to have a shot at this amazing training.

Amy Grant - a former mentoring client who took her Portable Empire training and zoomed straight to the front of the class. She is quickly establishing herself as a major force on the internet.

At UnSeminar3, Amy will tell you her story about how she went from newbie to serious, big-money success - fast.

There will also be a few surprises I can't reveal to you, yet... but you'll hear about them the minute we've worked out all of the details.

Here's the Real Secret Behind UnSeminar3

We're going to drill deep into topics that have more power over your success (or lack of it) than all of the how-to information put together.

It's not that learning "how-to" isn't important. It is, and we'll cover that too. But it's not the most important part, by far.

At UnSeminar3, we're going into the world of things you can't see. Those invisible factors of success that most people believe are reserved for a few select "gurus."

Me?

I don't believe it for one second. In fact, I want to let you in on a little "secret"...

Those "invisible factors"? You've already got 'em...

You just don't know quite how to see them, or use them... yet.

By the end of UnSeminar3, here are just a few of the other things that you'll know:

- The hidden reason that can some people transform themselves into overnight success stories, even if they start out homeless and broke.
- How to cut through the "information overload" that is constantly distracting you from reaching your real potential. And why it will keep distracting you until you deal with it once and for all.
- The universal secrets to transforming your life that you won't find at any other seminar, anywhere.
- And that's just the beginning.

But Wait, There's More - A Lot More

The best part is, you won't learn these things from 30 rows back, hearing someone's voice blasting out of a speaker.

Like the first two UnSeminars, space is VERY limited. There are only 40 spots open this year.

What that means is you will get loads of one-on-one time with the speakers. And even during the times they are presenting, you'll be just feet away from them... You'll feel the energy that success brings. It's a feeling that words on a page really can't do justice.

Plus, on Friday and Saturday nights after dinner, we'll have fun-hall. I used to call this study-hall, before it was renamed by Joe Vitale.

I like his name better.

Here's how it works:

Fun-hall is a time where everybody from UnSeminar3 just hangs-out. It's where you can spend some more time with the speakers, asking questions, getting help (within reason) and make connections.

A lot of "deals" tend to happen during fun-hall. In fact, some of the attendees believe it is one of the most valuable parts of the whole thing.

We'll have high speed wireless internet access, so bring along your computer if you've got one. And don't forget your sales pages, and all of your book and product ideas.

And David will be around to help you with the technical stuff like web pages and autoresponders.

Oh, and there will no doubt be some music. I'll probably grab my guitar and Joe will fire up his harmonica. Last time, we didn't stop until about 5 a.m.

But you're welcome to turn in anytime...

We'll also have a bunch of free stuff for you, books, videos, software, t-shirts and other gifts.

So Where Is It, When Is It, And What Is All This Going To Cost?

UnSeminar 3 is happening on February 16, 17 and 18 at the Vintage Villas, high in the hills surrounding Lake Travis, just outside Austin TX.

The scenery is breathtaking - not a bad place to change your life.

The fee for Unseminar3 is $497.

Why is it so cheap? Even less than other years?

I told you UnSeminar would be unlike anything you've ever seen.

If you've read my blog or some of my other writings, you'll quickly learn that I really care about what I do. Part of my payoff is seeing you succeed.

Some people call it "karmic responsibility."

I just call it caring.

I know that UnSeminar3 is worth thousands of dollars. I also know that you might not have a spare five thousand dollars to spend for a weekend in Texas - even one that will change your life.

So I've made a decision to remove the price as an obstacle.

I guess you could call it a gift.

Just a few years ago, I got a similar type of gift.

And if I had any clue about what lay beyond that experience - how much my life was about to change...

That's why the fee is only $497.00.

I want you to come.

So so don't dilly-dally. The UnSeminars fill up fast. And UnSeminar3 will be no different.

The universe rewards those who are clear about exactly what they want.

If you know that this year is the year your life is going to change, sign-up now and reserve your spot.

Your success is already inside you. At UnSeminar3, we'll help you discover it for yourself.

And that's the most Portable Empire of all. It's with you no matter where you go.

Se ya in Austin, February 16, 17 and 18.

P.S. I know what you're thinking. You might have a bunch of excuses bubbling up inside you right about now - all telling you why you can't or shouldn't attend UnSeminar3. If that's what's going on, I understand.

I used to have them too. But when I realized that those excuses were just my fears and insecurities coming to push me back down into my "normal" life - well, I got a little ticked at myself.

And I decided it was up to me to change my life. No one else was ever going to make that decision for me. And no one can do it for you. You've got to take the first step... I'll help you from there.

P.P.S. Just in case you're still on the fence... here's what just one of the attendees had to say about the UnSeminar:

"One of the best investments of time and money I have ever made in my life..."

-Randy Dale

(I've got a lot more of these on file.)
