"Your ezine is great! It has something for beginners but also something for experienced internet users. After owning an internet business since 1999, I find there is still always more to learn, and your ezine has grown with the times, avoiding repetitive tips commonly found in others. It's the only ezine I save issues of in my bookmarks to refer back to!"

- Tracy Foote, owner Tracy Trends

"Thank you for that article on making a profit with your online business. It struck a chord with me. I launched my business not too long ago and it seemed to be slow getting off the ground. By keeping my head high and reading all I can (thanks to sites like yours) business is picking up and I'm thinking positively for the future. I often pass on your words of encouragement to other new businesswomen too!"
